Christmas magic

These Christmas decorations bear the unique stamp of Peter Hunt's decorative technique. They are only a few examples of what the amateur can do with his famous peasant designs. A booklet giving complete directions for painting the Peter Hunt way is listed in Practical's September 1950 teaching aids section. It is called Transformagic by du Pont (Coupon No. 84) and sells for 25 cents. It is also available from du Pont paint dealers.
